REPUBLICAN NATIONAL LAWYERS ASSOCIATION
P.O. Box 18965, Washington, D.C. 20036 (202) 802-0437 http://www.rnla.org

Larry Levy
President

Randy Evans
Chair

RNLA Board of Advisors

About

The Republican National Lawyers Association is the principal national organization of Republican lawyers. RNLA works to advance: professionalism, Republican ideals and open, fair and honest elections. The Board of Advisors is made up of the foremost Republican lawyers who have exemplified these principles in the highest echelons of politics and law.

Functions of the Board

The Board of Advisors provides the RNLA policy advice to assist it in its efforts to promote open, fair and honest elections at all levels of American society in a non-discriminatory manner and to provide access to the polls to all qualified and eligible voters.

RNLA has long been a leader in efforts to ensure no legal voter is disenfranchised.

RNLA seeks to encourage people to legally vote through programs such as its recent efforts to promote online registration and easing restrictions and hurdles to our overseas military voting.

The Board of Advisors will also advise the RNLA Board on issues of interest to members and other lawyers.

The members of the Board of Advisors are always invited to attend RNLA national events including its National Policy Conference, National Election Law Seminar and Lawyers Reception at the Republican Convention.

Obligations

The Board of Advisors agree to allow their names and Board participation to be included on RNLA websites and publications, , and for specific initiatives with the express prior consent of the Board member. There are no fiduciary obligations.

Members

Members of the Board of Advisors include Attorney General William Barr, Attorney General John Ashcroft, Attorney General Michael Mukasey, and former New York Mayor and Associate U.S. Attorney General Rudy Giuliani.